

Remembering Gaynor

On April 30, 2025, Gaynor Williams Frankfort joined so many of her family and friends, as well as Abdul, in heaven. Just shy of her 85th birthday, Gaynor was incredibly special to the world and to this extended family. She showed her love through cooking meals, bringing thoughtful gifts, and simply being present when it mattered most.

The Haseleys adopted the Maliks over 50 years ago, a bond that began with Abdul and Ed's friendship and continued through Steve and Allan's generation. For decades, Thanksgiving and Christmas were celebrated at the Haseleys' home, until Gaynor married Hans and new traditions began.

Janet aptly called her "Ms. Bountiful," and it was true—Gaynor created abundance wherever she went, transforming a house with scarce resources into one overflowing with love, optimism, and opportunity. She was global in her impact, a second Mom to many, and lived by her favorite sayings: “God’s got a plan” and “Listen and share.” Even in her battle with Stage 4 cancer, her spirit remained fierce—she was old world resilient, always ready to pick herself up and dust herself off.

Hans is now living in Asheville with his daughter, Mary, and her husband, Drew.

Maliks Never Pause

As we Maliks wrap up another wacky wondrous year, we'd like to say that we're pausing this holiday season to reflect upon all our blessings... but the reality is that we never "pause." And so we reflect upon all of our blessings while in a constant state of action. Our 17-yr-old twins Macey and Sammey are high school seniors in the throws of college applications, sports, drama, and other extracurriculars. Our 21-yr old Skylar is a college senior at Pratt Institute in Brooklyn (Communications Design/Graphic Design), almost ready to dive into the real world of whatever and wherever her first career takes her. Jordan & Bethany are enjoying their 2nd year of wedded bliss! Jordan is an auditor at PWC and Bethany is at Campbell Law School. They enjoyed spending the summer in the U.K. and Asia for work and fun. On a weekly basis Kat gets on the tennis courts and gets super dirty with her outdoor gardening, and she's still immersed in her many volunteer jobs that don't pay any money. Steve is still immersed in his many jobs that do (or don't!) pay any money. All in all, we're happy and healthy. We miss our extended Haseley Family and look forward to whenever we can see any of you!

Love,

Steve, Kat, Jordan, Bethany, Skylar, Macey, Sammey, and Coby the Labradoodle.
